Bill Crosby to Head Roundup Days Program

John Barton, publicity chairman and master of ceremonies of the Miss Walteria beauty contest, has announced that Bill Crosby will headline the entertainment now planned for the gathering at the Polynesian Restaurant Friday, Sept. 9.

Bill, 14, has won several different competitions in the past few weeks. He became the first accordionist to hold three titles when he won the Western States Accordion Festival in Long Beach.

In addition to Crosby, some local talent will be displayed by the contestants for the Miss Walteria title. The festivities are part of the annual Walteria Roundup Days.

Winners of Bank Contest Announced

Melford L. Hunter, 1052 212th St., and Lucy Park, 750 E. Carson St., were among seven Torrance residents who copped top awards in the Gold Rush Contest at Bank of America's newly opened Main and Carson branch.

Manager Richard E. Ogle announced the results of the two-week long contest in which visitors to the new branch were asked to guess the number of gold coins inside a strongbox on display in the lobby.

Hunter and Miss Park were awarded first prizes of $50 savings accounts for their "guesstimates" which were only five from the actual number of coins in the box, 3417.

Second prize, a $25 savings account, went to Mrs. F. B. North, 21408 Meyer St., while Leon W. Jones, 318 Carson St., won a $10 savings account for third place.

Winning fourth place awards of $5 accounts were Eleanor McNeese, 22105 Denker; Opal D. Woodward, 22224 Vermont; and Jack Poindexter, 21800 Main.
